Adam: Your aunt? But ... How old is she?
Sam: She's 19. And yes, she's my aunt. She's from Madrid in Spain. She's my uncle's sister. She's my favourite aunt.
Adam: Why?
Sam: Because she's very funny!
Adam: OK, and who's this young man next to your sister? Her boyfriend?
Sam: Yes, he is. His name's Sven, and he's from Sweden. He's a student at university. He's very clever, but he isn't all that friendly. I don't like him very much.

Ben: Yes, it's here. Look.
Sally: Oh, it's a really big house! My dream house isn't so big. What's that next to the house? Is it a garden?
Ben: No, it's a swimming pool.
Sally: Wow, that's a good idea! It's a pity I haven't got a swimming pool in my garden. But there's a room in my dream house for listening to music and dancing. It's got a really modern music system.
Ben: I like that! Have you got a room for playing computer games? There's one in my basement.
Sally: There isn't a basement in my house. And I don't like computer games. What's that?

Tom: No problem. I've got two rackets.

Martha: No, it isn't a good idea.

Tom: How about going for a bike ride? It's a nice day and I know you've got a bike.

Martha: Yes, but I don't like riding it. It's rather old.

Tom: Oh, dear. Hey, what are those? New ice skates!

Martha: Yes, they're a birthday present from my uncle.

Tom: Come on, let's try them out.

2 Eric

Eric: I usually have lunch at the school canteen, and the food is good there. But I'm always hungry after lessons, so on my way home, I sometimes have a hamburger or a cheeseburger. My parents come home late, so we usually have dinner at 6:00 or 7:00 pm.

Brainy klasa 5. Tests Audioscript

4 Adrian
Adrian: I sometimes get up late, so I don't have time to eat breakfast. It's not a good idea because I'm often very hungry by lunchtime. Sometimes, I'm so hungry that I have lunch at the canteen, and after school, I buy a chocolate bar on my way home.

5 Chrissy
Chrissy: I always have breakfast in the morning: some cereal and tea. Then at school, I just have a sandwich. I don't have lunch at the school canteen because I don't like the food there. After school I go home, and my mum usually makes a late lunch for me around 2:00 pm.

1 Alice
Alice: It's 11:00 a.m., and it's time for my PE class. We usually have lessons on the school pitch, but today it's very cold, so we're in the gym. We're playing dodgeball. It's great fun. I love PE. It's my favourite lesson.

2 Mark
Mark: In our school, the teachers are always very strict. We mustn't run in the corridor during breaks, and we mustn't talk to other students in tests. And of course, we have a lot of homework.

3 Lucy
Lucy: I go to a school near where I live. It isn't big, but it's really nice. It has got bright classrooms and a very modern computer room. There is also a canteen, where I usually have lunch. The food is very good. It's only a pity that the school hasn't got a tuck shop.

1 Monica

Monica: Last year, I was on the Hawaiian Islands with my family. There is a huge volcano there, and you can go on a plane or helicopter trip to see it. It was the first time I was in a helicopter. It was a little scary but also fantastic!

2 Michael

Michael: I love cycling, and I've got a really good mountain bike. But I only use it at weekends, when my brothers and I go to the mountains. On weekdays, I get around the town on my scooter. It's a lot of fun, and it only takes me ten minutes to get to school.

3 Eva

Eva: Last weekend, I was on a trip to Edinburgh with my older sister. From our town, you can go there by coach or train. The coach is a little cheaper, but the train is faster. So, on Saturday morning, we were on the train. It was a very nice and comfortable journey!

4 Eric

Eric: On Tuesday and Thursday evenings, I go to a music school. The classes finish at 8 p.m., so my mum always calls for a taxi to take me home. All of my friends go home by underground, and I'd like to go with them. But my mum says I'm not old enough to be out so late on my own.

5 Angela

Angela: My family often goes on holiday by plane, so it's nothing new for me. Planes are OK, but they aren't very exciting. But last summer, I was on a ship, and it was great! I love the sea, and, for me, travelling by ship is simply the best!

Unit 7 Test

Jo: Did you have a good weekend, Tom?

Tom: Oh, it was great! I went to London. I was at Wimbledon to see the tennis championships.

Jo: Did you go with your dad?

Tom: No, he worked at the hospital last weekend. I went with my mum and grandpa.

Jo: Were there a lot of spectators?

Tom: Of course! Unfortunately, the first game was short and not very exciting, but the next one was very good.

Jo: What did you do after that? Did you catch the train home?

Tom: No, we went to an Italian restaurant and had a delicious pizza for dinner. Mm, it was really great. We didn't come back on Saturday but stayed at my grandpa's for Sunday.

Jo: Oh, so what did you do on Sunday? Did you see more tennis games?

Tom: No, we just went for a walk in the park. And then we caught the train home after dinner.

Jo: Sounds like a really nice weekend.

Tom: It was.

John: We often go to the mountains at weekends. We've got a small house there and there's a beautiful lake nearby. But this weekend we're going to have a picnic by the river near our town. And after that we're going to go canoeing on the river. It's going to be a lot of fun!

2 Luke and Grace

Luke: Not yet. I'm going to look for something this afternoon.

Grace: What are you going to buy him? Maybe a computer game?

Luke: No. I don't think he likes playing computer games. But he's really into sports and he also enjoys reading.

Grace: So, how about a football?

Luke: Actually, I'm thinking of buying him something to read, maybe a book about a famous sportsperson.

3 Katie

Katie: I can't wait to start my summer holidays. At the end of June my aunt and cousin from Italy are coming to see us. Later, I'm flying with them to their home in Italy and I'm going to stay there for two weeks in July. Then I'm at home for a while, but in August my parents and I are going to stay in London for a week. It's going to be great!

4 Lisa and Mark

Mark: Hi, Lisa. Why don't we go to the cinema this afternoon?

Lisa: I'm sorry, Mark, but I can't.

Mark: Why not? Are you ill or something?

Lisa: No, I'm fine.

Mark: If it's because you haven't got money for the ticket, it's no problem. My brother gave me two. We don't have to pay for them.

Lisa: Thanks, but I really need to finish my science project for Monday.

Mark: Oh, I see. OK, maybe next time.

Lisa: Sure.

5

Man: OK, please listen carefully. I'd like to tell you about our plans for the rest of the day. After lunch we're going for a walk around the lake. It's a beautiful area, so there are lots of places where you can take some nice photos. Remember that the lake is home to wild birds, so try to keep quiet. And stay on the path all the time. The wood around the lake is big, so don't walk off. It's going to be a long walk, so take some water and sandwiches with you.

Mia: I'm Mia, and my project is about jobs for teenagers. A lot of teenagers like going out with their friends, so we sometimes need to earn some extra money. In fact, most of the teenagers I know do something to earn money. Some of them wash cars or walk dogs. I like children, so, I sometimes stay with my neighbours' little daughter when they go out to the cinema or to a restaurant. Other popular jobs for teenagers include working at shops at weekends ... (fading)

3

Adrian: My name's Adrian, and my project is about teenagers' eating habits. A lot of teenagers are like my friends because they don't have a very healthy diet. When we go out, we often go to a fast food restaurant. My friends love hamburgers, but I don't, so I usually just have some ice cream or a piece of cake. OK, when I'm really hungry, I get a cheeseburger but it isn't very often. Now, what about eating the five a day ... (fading)

4

Izzie: I'm Izzie, and my project is about typical houses in my town. Most of the houses have two floors and three or four bedrooms. Only a few have more than that. Almost every house in my town has got a small garden with a fence in front of it, and they also have a garage. Some houses have got a basement, but not all that many. OK, now what about the rooms ...? (fading)

5

Paul: I'm Paul, and my project is about the seasons and the weather in my country. Let's start with spring. Early spring, which starts in March, is often not very nice. It's usually still quite cold and wet and it sometimes snows, too. But the weather gets much better in the middle of April, because it's often warm and sunny, but it can be windy, too. May is usually very warm and occasionally hot, but it's also usually very wet. OK, now about a typical summer ...? (fading)

Ben: Hello, Lisa. Yes, thanks. It was really good.

Lisa: What did you do?

Brainy klasa 5. Tests Audioscript

Ben: Well, on Friday I went to Robert's birthday party. Actually, his birthday was on the second of June, but that was a Thursday, so he had his party the next day, on the third.

Lisa: I see. Did you have a good time?

Ben: Sure. It wasn't a big party, just a few friends, but we had a great time. There was some really good food.

Lisa: What did you buy him for his birthday?

Ben: Well, you know he's a big fan of computer games, but we decided to buy him a board game. It's more fun than sitting in front of a computer all day. We played it during the party. What about your weekend? Did you stay at home?

Lisa: No, I didn't. I went with my parents to the mountains on Saturday.

Ben: Nice. What did you do there?

Lisa: Well, my dad wanted to climb a mountain, but my mum and I didn't want to do that. We wanted to go to the woods, so we went for a long walk in the afternoon. We came back home on Saturday evening.

Final Test

1

Woman: So, Lucy, how are the shoes?

Girl: Yes, that's a good idea.

2

Tom: Hi, Linda, are you at home?

Linda: Hello, Tom. No, I'm not. I'm in the mountains with my parents.

Tom: Oh, great! What are you doing?

Boy: Mum, I hate that. Can I vacuum the carpet instead?
Woman: All right.

5

- Mia: Mark, let's take a break from all this maths. I'm kind of hungry.
Mark: Good idea, Mia.
Mia: Would you like some fruit?
Mark: Fruit? Haven't you got any crisps or something?
Mia: I'm afraid not. My mum doesn't let me eat junk food or have any fizzy drinks, so we usually don't have stuff like that at home. Wait a minute! I got a box of chocolates for my birthday. Here you are.
Mark: Thanks.
